PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 20th February 1950

SUBJECT —*Limitation of validity of Open General Licences XI and XV
Concession Licences to the 31st May 1950.*

No. I(11)-ITC/50.—Licences issued (i) under the Open General Licence No XI concessions as announced in the Ministry of Commerce Public Notice dated the 1st June 1949 as amended by their Public Notice dated the 7th June 1949, and (ii) under the Open General Licence No XV Concessions as announced in the Ministry of Commerce Public Notice dated the 28th July 1949 and amplified by their Public Notice dated the 13th September 1949 (Appendix 'S' thereto) were issued against a special release of sterling which has to be utilized within a specified period. It has therefore become necessary to limit the validity of all licences issued under the Open General Licence No. XI and the Open General Licence No. XV Concessions, upto the 31st May 1950. All such licences as may have been originally made valid for shipment of the goods covered by them for periods extending after the 31st May 1950 will cease to be valid for shipment of the goods after that date. In no circumstances will the validity of the said licences be extended nor will the benefit of the usual grace period of fifteen days be allowed.
